

Business Is Rapidly Changing

Learn How to Adapt Through Your HR and Benefits Practices

Presented By

Join us for an informative webinar and learn how to adapt your HR and benefits practices in this rapidly changing business environment.

Triton Benefits

As an ADP Broker Partner, Triton Benefits works closely with the Comprehensive Services team. The synergy between being a benefits broker and understanding HR's technology impact on most businesses is key to being a 21st century broker.

Questions that will be answered by attending:

- What is Comprehensive Services? How does it significantly add to the value of your business?
- What does the Forrester Study demonstrate about ROI when implementing the ADP Workforce Now platform?
- How does ADP's personnel and technology add value to your HR department?
- What are the methodologies, growth, engagement, and strategic initiatives of the ADP Workforce Now program?
- What are the new trending employee benefits plans for 2017?
- Why work with both Triton and ADP together?
